Books of therapeutics are available in the market but no book is available with applied materia medica as per system-wise therapeutics. This book contains medicines covering therapeutic and applied aspects arranged in a systemised manner. The medicines affecting various systems are very vast and this covers the syllabus of BHMS and PG courses in Homoeopathy. Here the author with his deep knowledge of the subject of Materia Medica & Homoeopathic Therapeutics has arranged the book systematically and individually with separate commentary on General Homoeopathic Therapeutics to make it simple and easily understood. Dr Chauhan has taken a lot of pains and given considerable thinking to produce this book. The book contains pictures to express the symptoms of the disease to enable the homeopath to understand the same. The pictures have been drawn well. If the students see the pictures, they will not miss the symptom of the ailment and in homeopathy the understanding of the ailment and in homeopathy the understanding of symptoms is very important. Any student seeing the pictures in the book will not forget the character of the disease indicated by it and for them this is very essential. In this book, Well proved drugs are selected, Symptoms are collected from well known Materia Medicas, Symptoms are arranged from generals to particulars. 1999. Gift of Dr. George R. Wilkinson, Jr., from the collection of Dr. Davis. This long-awaited follow-up to the author's acclaimed New Materia Medica provides the most comprehensive information available on the most successful new fundamental homoeopathic remedies, including 36 remarkably effective new crystal, botanical, and animal remedies, all currently in use by the Guild of Homoeopaths and proven through meditation. Entries cover the physical and esoteric characteristics of remedies, the history of their medicinal uses, and detailed descriptions of the symptoms affecting individual parts of the body. Summarized case notes show clinical evidence of efficacy and illustrate the optimal use of each cure. Contains five parts, clinical, causation, temperaments, clinical relationships, and natural relationships. This book is based on the information in 3 volumes of Clarke's Dictionary. Several Editions speak more conveniently in praise of a book than any other word, reviewer or publisher could utter. Dr Carroll Dunham, after graduating himself from the Columbia College, New York, made the acquaintance of Dr Constantine Hering, one of the greatest physicians ever born, who became too helpful to him as well as generous and genial friend. In the meantime, he continued his study under Dr Boenninghausen with a desire to know everything within the enclosure of the school of Homoeopathy. Subsequently, he gratified himself with

Doctorate from College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York. But did he stop there? No. He wanted to drink the cup of knowledge upto its last drop. He began to study under many of the Great Physicians and Specialists of Europe for many years. Dr Dunham delivered his knowledge in this book Lectures on Materia Medica, an immortal part of Homoeopathic literature, an indispensable library aid to the practicing Homoeopathic practitioners. The lectures contained in these volumes were delivered by Dr Dunham while he occupied the chair of Materia Medica in the New York Homoeopathic Medical College. They have been edited from his note-books, practically verbatim and are the ripe fruits of his thought and experience -- in his own latest words, too valuable to be lost. This book offers a collection of over 100 new homeopathic remedies. It adds to existing knowledge, supplementing the established materia medicas used on a daily basis in homeopathy. The book has been brought out with an idea of giving in a short compass the basic ideas of Philosophy, Drug Picture and Application of Homoeopathy. One of the best books to consult in modern homeopathic practice, this one has it all comprehensive and most updated. One of the most popular and frequently referred clinical repertory in modern day practice, it is a must have in any standard homeopathic library. A compilation useful for students. Authorities such as Hahnemann, Boenninghausen, Hering, Kent, etc. have been consulted. David S. Riley's interest in the history, methodology and results of homeopathic drug provings began with his exposure to homeopathy in 1988 and his later study at the Hahnemann College of Homeopathy in Albany, California. The homeopathic drug provings published here are the result of his investigation of the research methods associated with homeopathic drug provings and contemporary research methodology. Dr. Riley has developed explicit and transparent research tools for (1) symptom selection criteria, (2) electronic data collection, and (3) blinding to reduce bias. These homeopathic drugs provings follow good clinical practice research guidelines (GCP) and incorporate the guidelines suggested by Dr. Samuel Hahnemann more than 200 years ago Teaches young homeopaths to master the art of taking the case. This work discusses about the characteristic symptoms which differentiates one remedy from the other. Excerpt from A Hand-Book of Materia Medica and Therapeutics: With Twenty-Nine Illustrations; Being a Portion of an Analytical Compendium of the Various Branches of Medicine The mucous membrane of the bronchi may also be employed for the introduction of medicines. They are applied here usually in the form of vapour, by means of an inhaler; or, when this cannot be had, by means of a teapot or basin, with an inverted funnel. It is not recommended to blow fine powders into the lungs. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
